Personal Bill of Rights

I have numerous choices in my life beyond mere survival.

I have a right to discover and know my own child within me, which is just being the human part of me.

I have a right to grieve over what I didn't get that I needed, or what I got that I didn't want or need.

I have a right to follow my own values and standards.

I have a right to recognize and accept my own value system as appropriate.

I have a right to say no to anything when I m not ready, or if it is unsafe or it violates my boundaries and my values. (In other words, I have a right to boundaries).

I have a right to dignity and respect.

I have a right to make decisions.

I have a right to determine and honor my own priorities.

I have a right to have my needs and wants respected by others.

I have a right to terminate conversations with people who make me feel put down or humiliated.

I have a right not to be responsible for other people's behavior, actions, feelings, or problems.

I have a right to make mistakes and not to be perfect.

I have a right to expect honesty from others.

I have a right to my feelings, all of them. Feelings are neutral.

I have a right to be angry at someone that I love.

I have a right to be uniquely me without feeling that I'm not good enough.

I have a right to feel scared and say I'm afraid.

I have a right to experience and then let go of fear, guilt and shame.

I have a right to make decisions based on my feelings, my judgment, or any reason that I choose.

I have a right to change my mind at any time.

I have a right to be happy.

I have a right to stability, roots, and stable, healthy relationships of my choice.

I have a right to my own personal space and time (you are not at other people's beck and call if you don't want to be).

There's no need to smile when I cry.

It is okay to be relaxed, playful and frivolous.

I have a right to be flexible and be comfortable doing so.

... to change, and grow (and that possibility is, indeed real).

I have a right to be open to improve communication skills so that I might be understood.

I have a right to make friends and be comfortable around people.

I have a right to be around a non-abusive environment.

I can be healthier than those around me. (A person doesn't have to match their feelings to the other person and be miserable just because they hurt.)

I can take care of myself no matter what.

I have the right to grieve over actual or threatened losses.

I have the right to trust others who earn my trust, and not for those who don't.

I have a right to trust myself, and forgive myself.

I have the right to give and receive unconditional love.
